Cryptocurrency Tax Report for January 1, 2022 – December 31, 2022

Dear Sample Miner,

We are pleased to deliver your consolidated cryptocurrency tax report for calendar year 2022. According to your instructions, we have applied the First In, First Out (FIFO) tax strategy.

Our records indicate that you are a first-time customer. We welcome the opportunity to assist with your crypto tax needs! We are happy to help with crypto-related inquiries at any time.

If you wish to have additional tax reports generated in the future, our system will automatically interpret your past reports to understand which cost bases have already been reported. This guarantees that cost bases are never duplicated over multiple capital gain/loss transactions.

Please feel free to contact us via email at tim@timbrown.me or hakim.patrick@gmail.com or via the Internet at ProBitcoinSolutions.com/contact if you ever have any questions or concerns.

Executive Summary

The value of your cryptocurrency transactions is denominated in United States dollars (USD).

Furthermore, we've listed below which coin had the largest impact on each category.

Total Gain	Total Loss	Income*	Deductions*
NEO	BTC	BTC	BTC
21.44 USD	5,817.12 USD	113,982.98 USD	8.62 USD

* The totals for Income and Deductions only include information that is publicly available. You should compare these reports against your own records to ensure that everything is included.

Overview of Detailed Report

Your detailed report is provided in XLSX format, a common spreadsheet format which can be viewed with software programs such as Microsoft Excel, Apple Numbers, and Google Sheets.

The detailed report is split into three sections:

1. Capital Gains and Losses
2. Income
3. Deductions

The “Capital Gains and Losses” section is designed to be the most comprehensive. It contains every realized capital gain or loss that occurred during January 1, 2022 – December 31, 2022.

The other sections list certain types of cryptocurrency transactions, such as staking rewards and transaction fees. However, these lists are not designed to be complete. You will probably want to add your own records to ensure that all of your income and deductions are included.

Additional Information

Certain columns in the detailed report may require some additional explanation:

- Timestamp: The date and time at which a transaction occurred, in ISO 8601 format.
- IRS Classification: Describes each capital transaction as “Short-Term” or “Long-Term”.
 - This classification is generally only relevant to taxpayers in the United States.
- Exchange pair: Provides the ticker symbols for the pair of assets that were involved in the given transaction. Common pairs include “BTC-USD”, “ETH-USD”, “BTC-EUR”, etc.
- Exchange rate: The daily spot rate for the given exchange pair at the given timestamp.

Here are some additional details to keep in mind:

- All dates and times are provided in universal time (UTC).
- Exchange rates for cryptocurrencies and fiat currencies are marked daily at midnight.
- If rounding is required, all decimal and floating-point values are rounded with the “round half to even” method, also known as “bankers’ rounding”. This is the standard rounding method for tax-related documents because it eliminates cumulative errors.

Included Coins

This report includes 8 coins: ATOM, BTC, DASH, DIVI, GAS, LTC, NEO, TFUEL

Is the number of coins less than you requested? This may occur when there is no tax-related activity for your coins during the requested date range. When this happens, we automatically remove the unused coins from your report so that you won't be charged for requesting them.
